

O Palestine

Nusaiba Hossain¹

I hate to see my people suffering
While those cruel Zionists are celebrating
Their bodies are getting rained down with phosphorus dioxide
Why aren't they realising, this is a genocide
I may be a kid but I'll raise my voice as high as it can go
For the Israeli forces to let go of our land of hope

O Palestine, you're as brave as you can be
O Palestine, the only wish I have is for you to be free
O Palestine, I'm sick of seeing these old bloodstains
O Palestine, no words can describe your pain
O Palestine, only Allah can stop this terror reign

Listen here, all Zionists
You're not a part of humanity
You know nothing but hypocrisy
Why can't you just leave them?
Can't you remember how they helped you?
This isn't a way of showing gratitude
Or do you need to go back to school?
Cause you're nothing but a bunch of fools

O Palestine, we'll never leave your side
O Palestine, our love for you will never subside
O Palestine, it's clear what they're doing is wrong
O Palestine, you must remain strong

Listen here! O humanity
This exceeds the level of insanity
You must go against this cruelty
The only way to fix this is through unity

¹ Nusaiba Hossain is a proud Bangladeshi. She was not initially into writing poems, but the situation in Palestine inspired her. After coming across numerous songs and poems in support of freedom and justice for Palestinians, she felt compelled to contribute. One night she decided to pick up her notebook and pen down this heartfelt poem. Email: nusaiba02021@gmail.com

O rulers of Arab, where have you gone?
Can't you see what they have done?
They want to kill everyone
And they do this just for fun

O Palestine, you carry Al-Aqsa
O Palestine, this proves you're special
O Palestine, Allah is with you
O Palestine, He will protect you
O Palestine, Allah loves you
And we do too
