

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Mohammad Redzuan Othman is a professor of History and former Head of Department of History, University of Malaya. He received his M.A. from SOAS, University of London, and Ph.D. from the University of Edinburgh. He has written extensively on the history of Islam and society in Malaysia. He has published among others, articles in Journal of Islamic Studies (Oxford), Hamdard Islamicus (Pakistan), Malaysia in History (Malaysia) and co-authored the book, The Malays in the Middle East, With Bibliography of Malay Printed Works Published in the Middle East (Kuala Lumpur: University of Malaya Press, 2000). He is currently the Dean, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, and Director of University of Malaya Centre of Election and Democracy (UMCEDEL), University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He can be contacted by email at: mredzuan@um.edu.my

Abu Hanifah Haris is a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of History, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. His main research field has been the history of Middle East, particularly Egypt's influence on Malay Society. He can be contacted by email at: abuhanifah@um.edu.my.

Abdullah al-Ahsan is a professor at the International Institute of Islamic Thought and Civilization (ISTAC), International Islamic University Malaysia. Graduated from McGill University, Montreal, Canada (M.A.), and the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA (Ph.D.), Ahsan has contributed many articles on the relationship between contemporary Islamic and Western civilizations. His works include: The Organization of the Islamic Conference: Introduction to an Islamic Political Institution (1988) and Ummah or Nation: Identity Crisis in Contemporary Muslim Society (1992). Jointly with Stephen B Young he has recently published Guidance for Good Governance: Explorations in Qur'anic, Scientific and Cross-cultural Approaches (June 2008). His books and articles have been translated into Arabic, Bengali, Bosnian, Turkish and Urdu. He is currently working on Muslim Nations in Contemporary History and Rise and Fall of Civilizations.

Wahabuddin Ra'ees is an associate professor in the department of political science and deputy dean, academic affairs, faculty of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences of the International Islamic University of Malaysia. He can be contacted at wraees@gmail.com

Fatimah Abdullah is an associate professor at the Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, International Islamic University Malaysia. She has published several research papers in various academic journals. She has authored works on various aspects of Islamic thought, including, Issues in Usul Al-Din (Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia: International Islamic University Malaysia Press, 2009).

Haslina Ibrahim is an assistant professor at the Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, International Islamic University Malaysia. She has published several research papers in various academic journals, including on various aspects of Islamic thought and comparative religion. She is presently the Deputy Director of the Sultan Ahmad Shah Mosque, IIUM.

Hailan Salamun has taught for a couple years in the Faculty of Education, University of Malaya. Now, he is a lecturer at University Malaysia Terengganu. Hailan's teaching interests include educational leadership, Islamic leadership, and moral leadership. He has researched on values and moral reasoning, Islamic civilization, Islamic education and Malaysian Studies. His email address is hailan@umt.edu.my

Saeeda Shah is currently working at the School of Education, University of Leicester. Previously, she has worked in higher education in Pakistan, holding senior management posts in both academic and administrative areas. Her last position being dean at the University of Azad Jammu and Kashmir, Pakistan. She was awarded the Best University Teacher Millennium Award 2000 by the University Grants Commission, Pakistan. She teaches in the Doctor of Education program and supervises a number of doctoral students from the UK and overseas. She is a recognized international scholar in her field and has published extensively in highly prestigious journals. She can be contacted at sjas2@le.ac.uk