

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Wahabuddin Ra'ees, born in Jalalabad, Afghanistan, is a Professor in the Department of Political Science and Director of Alumni and Career Services Division (ACSD) of the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He has held numerous administrative positions prior to his current post. Ra'ees specializes in International Relations with concentration in foreign policy making. He converses in English, Persian (Dari), Pashtoo and Arabic languages. Ra'ees holds a PhD (2002) in International Relations from University of Malaya (UM), MA (1995) in Islamic Theory of International Relations and a BA (1993) in Political Science from IIUM. Ra'ees has published a book and numerous publications in the form of journal articles, book chapters and book reviews to his credit.

Abdol Moghset Bani Kamal holds a PhD (2015) in political science with specialization in international relations from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). He has an M.A (2006) and B.A (2005) with first class honours in International Relations from the University of Karachi, Pakistan. He has published numerous articles in internationally refereed journals. Kamal's areas of research interest include the foreign policy of the Islamic Republic of Iran and ethno-religious issues and human rights.

Rodrigue Fontaine was born in the UK in 1970. He converted to Islam at the age of 23. He worked in three multinationals in Europe before immigrating to Malaysia in 1999. He obtained his PhD in management from MMU in Cyberjaya. Fontaine worked in MMU (8 years) and MSU (2 years) before joining IIUM in 2010. He has some experience in Islamic management, organizational behaviour and strategic management. He has published in a variety of international journals and he has co-authored two books on Islamic management. His current focus is on demonstrating that building a corporate culture that reflect Islamic values is feasible and cost-effective.

Mohd Shuhaimi Haji Ishak received his Ph.D (2007) and MA (2003) in Usul al-Din and Comparative Religion from the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). Prior to that, he obtained a Bachelor in Business Administration from ITM/Ohio University (1982). He has several years of experience in the private sector, specifically in banking, manufacturing, telecommunication and water services industry. He is currently attached to the Department of Fundamental and Inter-Disciplinary Studies, Kulliyah Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, IIUM. He has published 3 books and more than 16 articles in international refereed journals. His area of interest in research covers Islamic Thought, Malay World, Islamic Business and Management Studies, and Comparative Religion.

Wan Mazwati Wan Yusoff is a graduate of Eastern New Mexico University, USA and received her Ph.D. in Education, specialising in teaching thinking through philosophy from International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). She currently teaches creative thinking and Islamic worldview at the Department of Fundamental and Interdisciplinary Studies, Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, IIUM. She is a certified trainer for Philosophy for Children Program (P4C) awarded by Institute for Advancement in Philosophy for Children, Mont Claire State University, New Jersey, in 2006 and now is attached to Center for Teaching Thinking, Kulliyah of Education, IIUM, in promoting P4C to enhance excellent thinking among students and youth in Malaysia. Currently Wan Mazwati is conducting research in hadith for application in education, psychology and communication; and developing materials for teaching Islamic Education, using the philosophical inquiry method to enhance deep understanding and philosophical thinking skills among secondary school students.

Tazul Islam specializes in Qur'anic Studies and teaching at Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM) as a senior lecturer. Previously, he served two years at University of Malaya (UM) as a Post-doctorate fellow as well as a research fellow. He has produced a number of research articles published in peer-reviewed academic journals. Tazul has presented a number of papers in national and international conferences and seminars. He completed all his degrees with distinction which merited academic awards and scholarships, including the Vice-Chancellor Award (gold medal) for academic excellence for his Master.

M. Y. Zulkifli was born in August 1963 in the state of Kelantan, Malaysia. He studied in an Islamic Religious school at his hometown, and in 1983 continued his Bachelor's degree at the Academy of Islamic Studies, University of Malaya. He obtained his Bachelor's degree in Usuluddin with first class honours in the year 1987. He furthered his studies for the Master's degree of 'Interpretation of Al-Quran' at the University of Jordan, Amman, Jordan. He received his Ph.D from the University of Wales, UK in 2000.

Abdul Haseeb Ansari obtained his B.Sc. from Gorakhpur University, India and LL.M., Ph.D. from Banaras Hindu University, India. He has special interest in revenue law, environmental law, international law and comparative jurisprudence. He has published ninety over articles and four books and is the editor of the Journal of Islamic Law Review. He is presently Professor at the International Islamic University, Malaysia, a Deputy Dean at the Research Management Centre of the University, a member of the Council of Professors, IIUM and a member of the University Internationalisation Committee. In 2005, he received the best researcher award, in 2008, was honored with the outstanding researcher award by the university which he received the same award in 2012, including the Emerald Literati Award.

Saad Abu Elgasim obtained his LL.B from the University of the United Arab Emirates in 2000. He obtained a Master of Comparative Laws (MCL) from the International Islamic University/Malaysia in 2005. In 2013, he obtained his Ph.D. from the same university.

Mahamad Arifin is associate professor of Islamic law at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws. He obtained his Ph.D from the University of Edinburgh in 1988. He was deputy dean and head of department at Ahmad Ibrahim Kulliyah of Laws. Mahamad has published and edited books on Islamic law. He is also a resource person to a number of government agencies; member of Shariah Research Panel Jakim, Advisory Committee on the Publication of Law and Shariah Books, Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka, Syariah Advisor to OCBC al-Amin and Great Eastern Takaful. His current research interest are in Islamic Banking and Finance, Islamic family law and Islamic jurisprudence.