

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Fazal R. Khan is professor of mass communication at the Department of Mass Communication, The Institute of the Custodian of Two Holy Mosques for Hajj and Umrah Research, Umm Al-Qura University, Makkah Al-Mukarramah, Saudi Arabia. He served at the International Islamic University, Kuala Lumpur for ten years before joining Umm Al-Qura University. He also remained Dean of Social Sciences at Allama Iqbal Open University, Islamabad and head of the department of mass communication at various universities in Pakistan. Prof. Khan was educated in three different universities in the United States – Ph.D. from University of Wisconsin, Madison; MS from University of Kansas, Lawrence and spent a year as a Fulbright Fellow at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. His research work is widely acclaimed at Pakistan and abroad, and quite recently one of his research publications won Best Research Paper in Social Sciences Award organized by the Higher Education Commission of Pakistan.

Osman B. Gazzaz is Head of the Department of Mass Communication, Umm Al-Qura University, Makkah Al-Mukarramah, Saudi Arabia. He also works as an advisor to the Ministry of Hajj, KSA on communication related issues. He obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Leeds, UK and contributed articles to reputed Saudi and Middle Eastern journals of research.

Zafar Iqbal works as an associate professor of media studies at the International Islamic University, Islamabad, and carries about 20 years of teaching and research experience. He received his doctorate in mass communication in 2003 from Pakistan. He served in several public sector universities of Pakistan and also worked on some funded projects besides contributing a number of research papers in reputed national and international journals. During the last seven years, he spent a year as a post-doctorate scholar at the University of Surrey, UK, and a semester at the University of Southern California,

Los Angeles, USA as a sabbatical fellow. He has recently authored a book exploring the relationship dynamics between mass media and governments in Pakistan published by Higher Education Commission.

Benouda Bensaid earned his Bachelor Degree in Islamic studies (University of El-Emir AbdelKadir, Constantine, Algeria), Masters in Islamic Revealed Knowledge (International Islamic University, Malaysia) and Ph.D. in Islamic Studies (McGill University, Canada). Currently, he is associated with the College of Art and Science, Effat University, Jeddah Saudi Arabia. Previously, Bensaid worked at the Department of Fundamental and Inter-Disciplinary Studies, Kulliyah of Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Human Sciences, International Islamic University Malaysia. E-mail: bbensaid@gmail.com

Ibrahim Nuhu Tahir was born in Zaria, Nigeria. The author graduated with a B.A. (First Class Honors) in Shari'ah and Islamic Studies from the Kulliyah of Shari'ah at the International Islamic University of Al-Madinah Al-Munawwarah and a Post-Graduate Diploma (First Class of Honors) in Islamic Law and Islamic Political Science from the same university. He then proceeded to earn a Master's degree in Shari'ah and Civil Laws from the International Islamic University of Malaysia. Thereafter he obtained his Ph.D in Shari'ah and Civil Laws from the same university where he now works as Assistant Professor in the Kulliyah of Economics and Management Sciences in the Department of Economics. His areas of interest are fiqh, usul al fiqh, Qur'an and sunnah, Islamic History, aqidah, shari'ah laws, fiqh for economists, maqasid al-shari'ah, and issues concerning Islamic Banking and Finance and qawaid fiqhiyyah.

Hafas Furqani is currently a lecturer at the Faculty of Islamic Economics and Business UIN Ar-Raniry Banda Aceh, Indonesia and a researcher at ISRA (International Shariah Research Academy for Islamic Finance). He received his Ph.D in Economics (2012) as well as Master of Economics (2006), from the Department of Economics,

International Islamic University Malaysia. His bachelor degree is in Shari'ah Mu'amalah from the State Islamic University (UIN) Syarif Hidayatullah, Jakarta (2002). Hafas has written and published articles in the areas of Shari'ah, Islamic economics, banking and finance in academic journals as well as newspapers and magazines. He has also presented papers at various international conferences and been invited for training and lecture on the subject of Islamic economics, banking and finance. His paper "Challenges in the Construction of Islamic Economics Discipline" was awarded 1st Prize at the KLIFF Essay Competition (2011) and his article entitled "Theory appraisal in Islamic economic methodology: purposes and criteria" published in Humanomics (2012) was chosen as a Highly Commended Award Winner at the Literati Network Awards for Excellence 2013. His Ph.D thesis "The Foundations of Islamic Economics: A Philosophical Exploration of the Discipline" was awarded Gold Medal at the 2012 International Islamic University Malaysia Research, Invention and Innovation Exhibition (IRIIE 2012). Hafas can be contacted at hafasf@gmail.com

Mohamed Aslam Haneef is professor at the Department of Economics, International Islamic University Malaysia. He received his Ph.D from the School of Development Studies, University of East Anglia, UK and also holds a Masters of Economics from the University of Malaya and Bachelors of Economics (Hons.) from IIUM. He teaches economics and Islamic economics at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, including to MBA students. He was Head of the Economics Department, IIUM from June 1996-September 1999, a Fulbright visiting scholar at the Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding, Georgetown University, US from September to October 1996 and held a Commonwealth Fellowship at the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies (1999-2000). He has published books and articles and conducted research in various areas of Economics and Development Studies and was involved in numerous public and private executive training programs, specializing in Islamic economics and contemporary development issues.